Handmade Jewellery

Emily Alice Product Catalogue For Wholesale Customers 2012

Emily Alice creates beautiful jewellery inspired by our emotions and sensations. Over the next few pages you will see a range of jewellery with 4 main themes:

Serotonin is well known in our bodies to be responsible for happiness and keeping us calm.

Dopamine is gives you feelings of euphoria and motivates you to pursue the things you want in life.

Phenethylamine (Love Junkie) is the hormone that is associated with new romance and that feeling of walking on air.

Adrenaline is a reflection of strength and power in our bodies.

Each piece is designed to reflect the specific hormone while keeping in mind that jewellery should be beautiful and wearable.

Handmade Jewellery

Wholesale Terms

- My jewellery is handcrafted so there may be minor variations from item to item. The size and design of each piece will be substantially the same as on this line sheet and is quality assured. All pieces are sterling silver unless otherwise stated.

- Initial orders must be a minimum of 10 items, with payment made in full before items are shipped. Subsequent orders must total 5 of the same items or more, and payment can be made on Net 30 terms. I accept Paypal for the payment of goods.

- Shipping costs will be calculated by weight and the goods will be sent through Thailand's Express Mail service which provides tracking for shipments. Estimations and shipping upgrades can be provided.

- Items are boxed in a quality Emily Alice branded jewelry box (see Dopamine collection below) . All items come with a description of the molecule that they are inspired by.

- Please allow 10-14 days from the time of your order for completion of items. In quieter retail months faster service can be provided—please ask. Larger orders may require more time; please contact me for information about availability.
